Aknowledgment

This book would not have been possible without the hardwork of the yearbook staff, as well as the guidance of our dedicated advisor, Lyn DeGraff. We would also like to thank Matthew Clark, for his help with coordinating and designing the book, and Rick Brooks for help designing the cover, both from Jostens. We also appreciate the support of CCAL, JJ Boggs, and Doug Adams.

For photo contributions to the various sections, our thanks go to Brad Nadeau (Director of Athletic Communications), The Commons, Vincent Jones, Chris Johnson, Catherine Hayes, Donna Zamora-Stevens and the many MiddKids and Parents who sent in submissions for the Commencement, Study Abroad, Candids, and Ads sections. We also appreciate the SGA and Senior Senator Brittany Gendron for approving our budget and providing help with publicity respectively.

Our greatest thanks, however, go to the Class of 2012 for being a phenomenal class and essentially making this book what it is.

Capoeira

Capoeira is the traditional Brazilian fusion of dance and martial art created by the slaves as a way to practice how to fight. With the teaching of famous capoeira mestres (masters), capoeira has recently become more popular around the world as a sport with a strong sense of culture, community, and athleticism. Much in the spirit of capoeira, we here in Middlebury, love to move around in circles, sing (often out of tune), bend at ridiculous angles, and look cool/ silly while having exuberant amounts of fun.

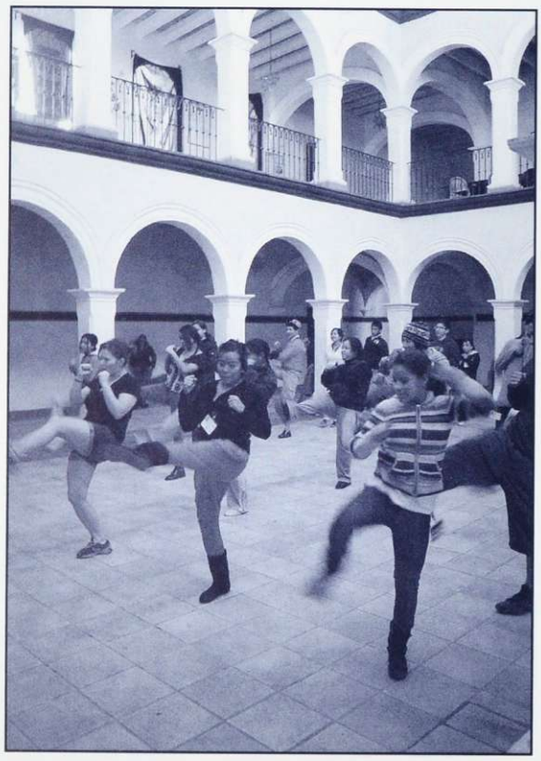
Middlebury Alternative Breaks



MAlt trips are student led break experiences based on service, education, and reflection. In 2011–2012 MAlt coordinated a local fall trip and five Feb break trips in the US and abroad. These included working with 826 Boston, a literacy advocacy and tutoring organization that emphasizes creativity and imagination in writing skills; travelling to Eastern Tennessee to learn more about the Cherokee people and their traditional ways of life while participating in a vast variety of service projects with local agencies; volunteering at an orphanage in arural area of the Dominican Republic with Outreach360, an organization that seeks to transform individuals, families, and communities through the education and development of orphaned, abandoned, and disadvantaged children; working with undocumented immigrants and refugees from around the world in El Paso, just 11 blocks from the US-Mexico border; and working with the Center for Adolescents of San Miguel de Allende, a non-profit that works to empower women, combat the destructive effects of domestic violence, and promote healthy lifestyles in Mexico.

Middlebury College Rugby Club

Now competing in Division I-AA, the MCRC is on the of the strongest rugby programs in the USA, having won the Division II National Championships in 2007 and 2009, and narrowly missing a third title in 2011 with a 2nd place finish. Nevertheless, the club is about more than trophies: its a brotherhood that will last you a lifetime!

This year the MCRC had great success in their first fall competing in Division I-AA, finishing with a 3-3 record. The spring season has offered the club a great opportunity to continue to develop young talent in order to maintain a great tradition of success on and off the field.

"It's not about who stands before you, but who stands beside you."

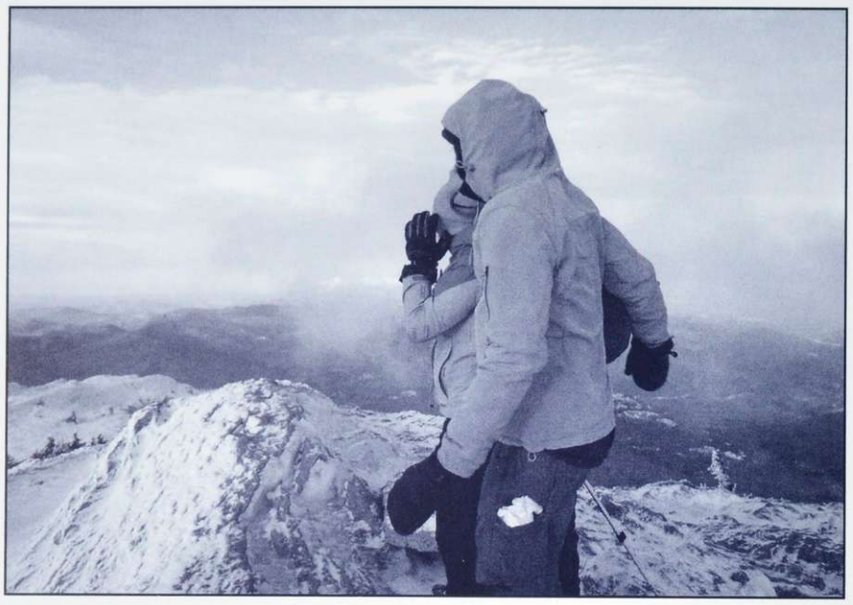
Middlebury Mountain Club



The Middlebury Mountain Club sponsors and encourages Middlebury students to experience and enjoy the out-of-doors responsibly, offering year-round activities throughout Vermont, the Adirondacks, and beyond.

This year, We brought Get Outside Week back, a used-to-be J-term tradition. We are also getting the wheels rolling on our whitewater kayaking program. We succeeded in sending out trips every weekend this fall!

The purpose of Page 1 is to promote a love of reading and enthusiasm for learning in students at local Addison County elementary schools. Through weekly reading and homework programs, along with special one-time events, Page 1 strives to encourage literacy and to give children the opportunity to become strong readers and learners for the future.

The Senior Committee

The purpose of the senior committee is to educate a group of student leaders, and in turn the larger undergraduate population, on the importance of giving back to Middlebury through volunteering and philanthropy. Through meetings with alumni leaders and college administrators the students will learn about what excites people about serving the institution and how the College depends on actively engaged alumni. This group will be given an insiders view into the operations and needs of their alma mater, while planning events that will build unity among the classes and create a foundation for solid alumni participation. This will all lead to a more seamless transition from student to alumnus/a.

This year we have planned several successful events for the senior class, including a senior gift kick-off dinner in Atwater dining hall, the 200 Days party in November, a senior night at 51 Main in January, the 100 Days party in the spring and all the events of Senior Week, which include a boat cruise on Lake Champlain, a day at Lake Dunmore, a "last chance dance" and a senior tent formal. We also decided on the "Class of 2012 and 2012.5 Opportunity Fund" to fund unpaid internships and financial aid as our senior class gift and we are working on generating as much participation towards the class gift as possible.

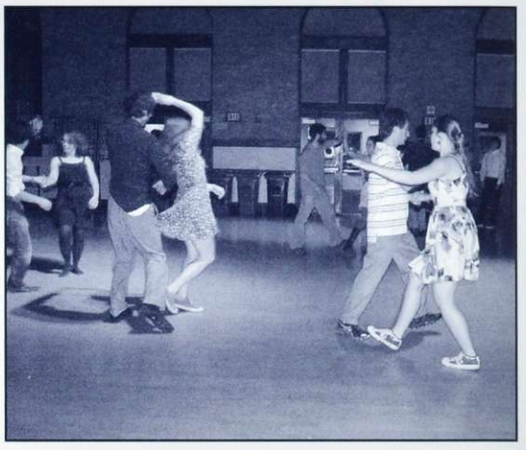
Stuck in the Middle

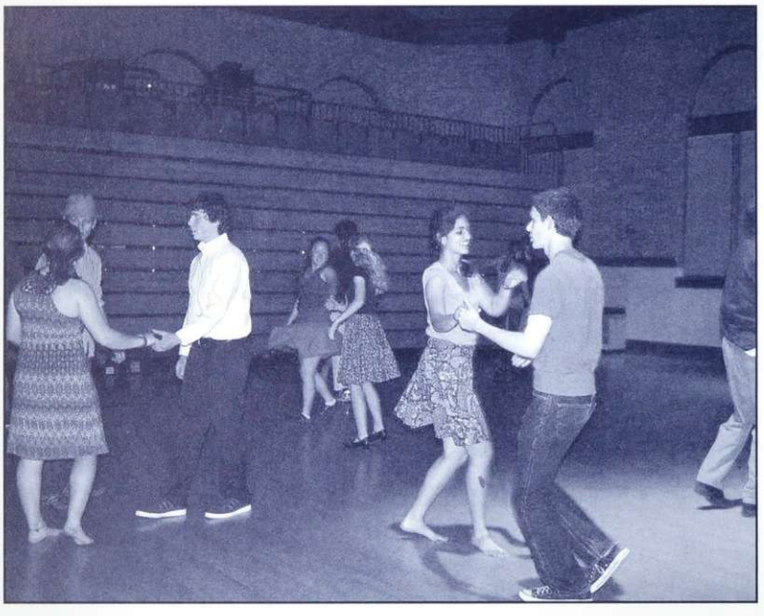
Stuck in the Middle (SIM) is Middlebury College's freshest, cleanest, newest, all-male a cappella group. We sing a cappella in a variety of styles and work to create innovative performances full of exciting musical experiences.

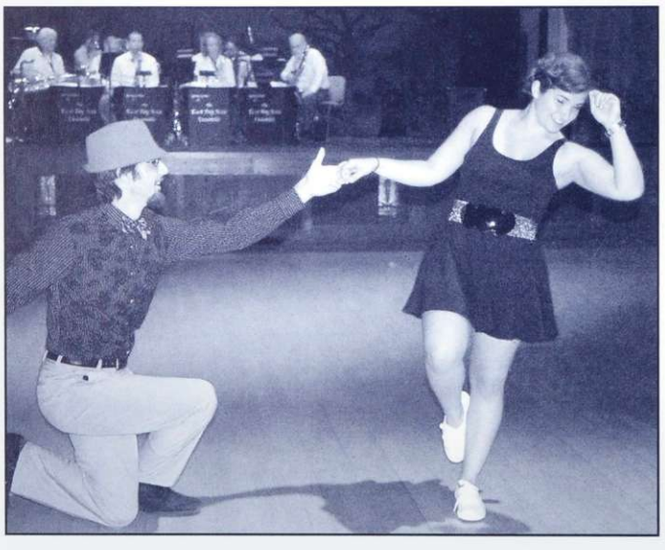
This year SIM turns ten years old and is celebrating with a Decade of SIM Alumni Concert on April 28th. We prepared to record a new CD in May with a new style and many brand-new songs. To do so, we launched a Kickstarter Campaign, rewarding our fans for their continued support.

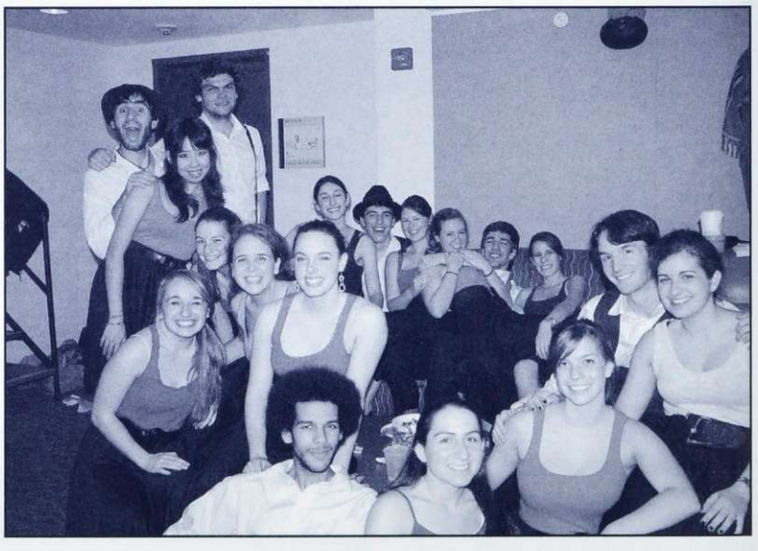
Swing Club



Members include: Kristen DeGraff, Lindsey Hunt, Eleni Polychroniadou, Mike McCann, Alyssa Anderson, Ashley Litzenberger, Galen Anderson, Melanie Dennis and Amanda Reis.







Volunteer Service Organization

Volunteer Services Organization (VSO) is a service group that helps students become active in various types of volunteer activities in the Middlebury Community. VSO plans weekly volunteer worksites and holds annual events, such as Trick-or-Treating for canned goods on Halloween and raising money to buy traditional Thanksgiving meal items to donate to the local food shelf.

Xenia

We provide a social space for students to have fun and hang out with their friends, without alcohol needing to be part of the equation. We watch movies, cook, play board games, and maintain a comfortable space. We hold a Sunday Night Dinner at 6 pm every week where students can enjoy home-cooked food in a laid-back atmosphere.

This year, we have maintained a fun and awesome substance-free social life on campus. We have completed two exciting pledge seasons, and have recruited a new generation of wizards and Jedi knights. We are also making progress on fixing that flux capacitator in the basement.

Xiao Pengyou Mentoring Program

Xiao Pengyou Mentoring Program pairs adopted Asian children with an Asian student from Middlebury College. We aim to provide them with an environment in which they can meet other Asian children while also having college mentors to hang out with. Because it is very rare for these children to see other Asians in their life here in Vermont, we believe that our program is very meaningful in offering them a channel to understand and appreciate their Asian heritage. Furthermore, Xiao Pengyou forms a platform for the children' parents to share their experiences and stories.

This year we recruited 7 new mentors in fall and paired them with 5 new families. In J-term, we organized a Chinese New Year Celebration event for children and their mentors in which they could taste traditional Chinese New Year food and make paper-cuts for window decorations, which Chinese people traditionally consider as a blessed way to welcome the new year.

Yoga Club

The Yoga Club is a new student organization, formed in November 2011. Its purpose is to provide yoga series for the Middlebury College community, offering the benefits of yoga's reflective and balancing effects. Our goal is to offer classes accessible to those who want to try yoga for the first time, for those who want to practice weekly, or for those who would just like to drop in on a particularly stressful week.. We sponsor a weekly yoga series and provide information about other yoga opportunities on campus to our 150 members and the college community. This year, through an Environmental Council grant, Yoga Club is also hosting an Earth Day weekend of yoga workshops focused on fostering ecological awareness.
